

The Wenonah Environmental Commission Invites You To Join Us For

The Glo. County Nature Club
- Bird Quest 2018

Discover the Birds of Wenonah
And Tall Pines State Preserve

Saturday, May 5, 2018

Once again the Wenonah Environmental Commission is forming a team, The Wenonah Birdspotters, to participate in Bird Quest, an event sponsored by the Gloucester County Nature Club, on Saturday, May 5, 2018 from 7:00 A. M. until 12:00 P.M. We will be birding in or near the Wenonah Conservation Area and at the newly created Tall Pines State Preserve and discovering the great variety of bird species that live and nest right here in Wenonah.

Who is welcome to join us?

Everyone! Nature lovers, students, teachers, parents, young people or adults. Whether you're an experienced birder or someone who has never birded before, you can experience the beauty and wonders of nature here in our own community.

What exactly is Bird Quest and how do I find out more about it?

1. Read the Bird Quest brochure that accompanies this flyer.
2. Visit the Gloucester County Nature club's web site gcnatureclub.org for detailed information.
3. Attend a free training session (optional) conducted by an expert birder. The sessions are listed on the nature club web site and newsletter.
4. If you still have questions, contact Rich Dilks of the Wenonah Environmental Commission at 468-6342 or email at rad721@verizon.net.

What does this cost & what do I get?

The cost is $15.00 per person. (Checks can be made out to The Gloucester County Nature Club.) After the birding ends, participants gather at Scotland Run Park at noon for a free lunch, a free Bird Quest 2018 t-shirt and door prizes. Flash cards for the Birds and Trees of Gloucester County will also be available for purchase.

How do I join the Wenonah Birdspotters?

Easy, just contact the WEC's Rich Dilks by Weds. April 25, 2018 with your name, email or phone number, t-shirt size and be sure to forward the $15 fee. Rich can be reached by tele: at 468-6342, email rad721@verizon.net or by mail at 301 W. Elm Street, Wenonah, NJ 08090.

Join us for this fun and educational event!